NO TIP LAW AROUSES 'EM.
SAXE'S BILL STIRS WAITERS, BARBERS ET AL.

And in His Own District They Cry That Plunkitt Would Never Have Done This—But They'll Come to the Aid of a Worthy Patron Who Offends the Law.
News that Senator Saxe's anti-tipping bill had become law was received about New York yesterday with a mixture of surprise and indignation.
The law makes it a misdemeanor to give any present or gratuity to a servant or employee "with intent to influence his action in relation to his employer's business."
"Twenty-three for that," cried the waiters in the beef-an' porter emporiums. "We don't never get none anyhow."
"No more da free country," moaned the barbers of Avenue A, who sometimes enjoy a tip on Saturday night.
"The enforcement of such a pernicious law," said the staff in Jack Dunston's business. "Patrons come here largely for the purpose of giving us tips."
In Senator Saxe's own bailiwick much murmuring was heard. There live many waiters and barbers of many colors and many chauffeurs of various speeds.
"George Washington Plunkitt never would have done that to us," they said. "Why did we ever detest him—our great and good friend?"
Liberal interpretations of the wording of the law failed to reassure them. They insisted that tips always influenced their employers' business—for the better.
"Yet we must obey the letter," the driver of an automobile sighed. "If one tries to give me a dollar at the end of an eight hour trip up the Drive, I surely shall hurry with him to the nearest police station and inform on him."
Steps are being taken among the barbers, bartenders, cabbies, drivers, hallboys, bell-boys and waiters to organize the "Bowl Bond Association for Worthy Patrons." Habit will be so strong with the patrons, it is explained, that they cannot help giving tips for a long time to come. When peevish persons call in the police, the walking delegate of the association will be sent to the station house to put up bail for the prisoner.
The association will also try to teach patrons the true meaning of the law, and in other ways try to reform them. The evils of soliciting waiters and other employees to take tips will be pointed out at Sunday afternoon lectures.
Of course some employees are delighted with the law. Private coachmen who have been insulted ever and anon by harness and carriage makers and horse dealers who offer them five and ten are glad that they will now have legal redress. Stewards and butlers who have been humiliated by having to take money from grocers and butchers are throwing their hats in the air and cheering like fury.
Same way with the butchers' assistants who have been persuaded to yield the choice

STIRRING BOWERY CATHOLICS.
Father Luke Evers Is Going to Get Them All at a Church Mission.
The Rev. Luke J. Evers, pastor of St. Andrew's Church, in Duane street, is stirring up the careless Catholics in the Bowery lodging houses this week to get them to attend a mission in his church. Father Evers has had "doggers" printed and has personally visited all the lodging houses between Chambers street and Chatham Square, distributing circulars and instructing the few faithful attendants in the lodging houses to go among their fellow lodgers and bring them to the mission for men which begins next Sunday. Father Evers said yesterday: "There are 5,000 men in lodging houses in Park row and the Bowery between Chambers street and Chatham Square, and more than half of these men are Roman Catholics. As they are in my parish I must see to it that they are practical Catholics or know the reason why. I intend to have them at my mission."
The Augustinian fathers are giving the mission.

$10,000 REWARD to any one who can disprove this statement.
The reason W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes are the greatest sellers in the world, is, because of their excellent style, easy fitting and superior wearing qualities. If I could show you the difference between the shoes made in my factory and those of other makes and the high grade leathers used, you would understand why W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes cost more to make, why they hold their shape, fit better, wear longer, and are of greater intrinsic value than any other $3.50 shoe on the market to-day. W. L. Douglas guarantees their value by stamping his name and price on the bottom. Look for it. Take no substitute. Sold by all shoe dealers.
MOST STYLISH AND COMFORTABLE.
"Kindly allow me to say I have worn W. L. Douglas $3.50 shoes for the past five years, and must say they are the most stylish and comfortable shoes I ever wore, and their service cannot be excelled by any other make."

Doing the Greatest Business We Ever Knew in Men's Clothing

WANAMAKER Clothing is being appreciated by New York men, that is certain. Each year the business has grown greater, and the present season's business is most gratifying. Even with almost half a century's achievements in the betterment of clothing, every year finds new improvement possible.
We have never had a finer, better assorted or better made stock of clothing than is here today for the men who are ready for their Spring Suits and Overcoats. It will puzzle the most critical to tell us where the custom tailor could improve on this clothing.
The materials are the handsomest that have been woven, the styles are the newest and most up-to-date, the workmanship is artistic and most thorough throughout. Of course, every fabric is absolutely all-wool.
Here are a few suggestions of the most important groups:

Men's Suits
Very handsome Suits, of blue unfinished worsteds, single-breasted sack coats, at $15 and $18; with double-breasted sackcoats, at $15, $16.50 and $20.
Sack Suits, of fancy worsteds—the most popular fabric this Spring—in stripes, plaids and pin checks; single-breasted, at $15 to $35; double-breasted, at $18 to $30.
Cutaway Frock Suits, of black thibet, at $15; of black unfinished worsted, Venetian cloth-lined, at $20; silk-lined, at $25 and $30.
Striped Worsted Trousers, in all the newest designs, at $5 to $12.
Men's Overcoats
Black and Oxford-mixed Overcoats—long enough to cover your Prince Albert or cutaway frock—of black thibet, Venetian cloth-lined, at $15; of vicuna, silk-lined, at $20 to $30.
The "Wanamaker Special" Oxford Cheviot Overcoats lined with Skinner's pure-dye silk. The best overcoat in the city at the price, $15.
Same Overcoats of Vicuna, silk-lined, at $20 to $30.
Surtout Overcoats, in all the newest fabrics, at $22 to $35.
Young Men's Clothing
Youth's Fancy Sack Suits, sizes for 14 to 20 years, in stylish worsteds and chevrons—
Of chevrons, $10 to $15; of worsteds, $15 to $20.
Small men can be fitted, up to 35 chest, at a big saving.
Second floor, Fourth Avenue.

DERBY HATS For Spring
WANAMAKER Derbies are made to withstand the roughest usage.
In that respect they justify their being—they've proved that. Quality and workmanship—both of the very highest character—have made possible their staying power.
The very newest Spring models of the block makers are here—and in every possible combination of brim width and crown height.
Any man can be suited—must be suited.
The newest twist of the ever-popular d'Orsay curl—stylish and graceful. We have that hat, too.
Do you wonder at our success as men's hatters?
$3, $3.50, $5 and $6.
From our recent sales of Derbies we have left a quantity of splendid hats, all this season's and all of fine quality.
The size-range is complete—but the schedule of style in each size is somewhat broken.
At $1.75 Each
Worth $2.50 and $3.
Men's Hat Store, Second floor, Ninth st.

The "Manhattan" Wing
12c Each—Two for 25c
A WING COLLAR of the WANAMAKER line. Very stylish. Dressy.
Four-ply. Linen both sides. They're the only collars we know of at the price that are that—four-ply and both sides linen.
The front is 2 1/4 in., the back 1 1/2 in. Sizes 14 to 16 1/2.
12c each, two for a quarter—the "Manhattan" Wing.
Broadway and Ninth Street.

Suits and Top-Coats for Boys
A WORD about the "Wanamaker Special" Suits—$5. These garments are made specially to our order by the finest manufacturer of Boys' Clothing that we know of in the country.
They are all-wool—every thread. They are sewed throughout with silk, firmly, strongly.
At the knees and other places likely to wear quickly—the suits are re-inforced. Things you do not see—but that wear.
And then they're chock full of style. Some examples:
Double-breasted Jacket Suits, with knee trousers; double thickness at seat and knees; taped seams. Of blue serge and blue and mixed chevrons. Sizes for 8 to 17 years, at $5 a suit.
Norfolk Jacket Suits, with bloomers trousers; of blue serge and mixed chevrons. Sizes for 8 to 16 years, at $5 a suit.
Sailor Suits of plain blue serge and mixed chevrons; with Eton collars, sizes 8 to 10 years; with sailor collars, sizes 4 to 12 years, at $5 a suit.
Boys' Reefers of blue serge, tan covert cloth and cheviot, sizes 4 to 12 years, at $5 each.
The new Tan Covert Cloth, Top-Coats, sizes 6 to 16 years, at $5 each.
Second floor, Ninth street.

Col. Wagner Critically Ill.
WASHINGTON, April 7.—Col. Arthur L. Wagner of the Military Secretary's department of the army and a member of the General Staff, who is regarded as the foremost theoretical strategist in the army, is extremely ill at his home here and his chances of recovery are regarded as slight. Col. Wagner was taken ill about two weeks ago.

THE PROVIDENCE IS A FLYER.
New Fall River Liner Maintains a Speed of 23 Knots in a Choppy Sea.
NEWPORT, R. I., April 7.—The steamer Providence of the Fall River Line had her official trial trip this afternoon off Newport and proved herself the flyer of the line, developing greater speed than the Priscilla. The Providence left Newport about noon and was headed out to sea for a run of four hours, during which she maintained a speed of twenty-three knots. The conditions were not favorable for the steamer, there being a strong wind and quite a choppy sea. Under the circumstances the performance of the boat is considered excellent.
